BETHESDA MD 20814

Notice Type: Approval Notice
Class: H1B
Valid from 07/31/2023 to 07/30/2026

The above petition and accompanying request for an extension of stay have been approved. The status of the named beneficiary(ies) in this classification is valid as indicated on the I-94 attached below. The beneficiary(ies) can work for the petitioner pursuant to this approval notice, but only as detailed in the petition and during the petition validity period indicated above, unless otherwise authorized by law. Changes in employment or training may require you to file a new Form I-129, Petition for a Nonimmigrant Worker.

The dates in the I-94 attached below might not be for the same dates as the petition validity dates above because the I-94 below may contain a grace period of up to 10 days before and up to 10 days after the petition validity period for the following classifications: CW-1, E-1, E-2, E-3, H-1B, H-2B, H-3, L-1A, L-1B, O-1, O-2, P-1, P-1S, P-2, P-2S, P-3, P-3S, TN-1, and TN-2. An I-94 for H-2A nonimmigrants may contain a grace period of up to one week before and 30 days after the petition validity period. However, the beneficiary(ies) may not work during such grace periods, unless otherwise authorized by law. The decision to grant a grace period and the length of the granted grace period is discretionary, final, and cannot be contested on motion or appeal. Please contact the IRS with any questions about tax withholding.

The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice. The lower portion should be given to the beneficiary(ies). The beneficiary(ies) should keep the right part (the I-94 portion) with his or her other Forms I-94, Arrival-Departure Record. The I-94 portion should be given to the U.S. Customs and Border Protection when he or she leaves the United States. The left part is for his or her records. A person granted a extension of stay who leaves the U.S. and is not visa-exempt must normally obtain a new visa before returning. The left part can be used when applying for the new visa. If a visa is not required, he or she should present it, along with any other required documentation, when applying for reentry based on this approval notice at a port of entry or pre-flight inspection station. The petitioner may also file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, to request that we notify a consulate, port of entry, or pre-flight inspection office of this approval.

The approval of this petition does not guarantee that the beneficiary(ies) will be found to be eligible for a visa, for admission to the United States (if traveling abroad and seeking re-admission), or for a subsequent extension of stay, change of status, or adjustment of status.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.

- ▶ Effective April 26, 2013, DHS began automating the admission process. An alien lawfully admitted or paroled into the U.S. is no longer required to be in possession of a preprinted Form I-94. A record of admission printed from the CBP website constitutes a lawful record of admission. See 8 CFR § 1.4(d).
 - ▶ If an employer, local, state or federal agency requests admission information, present your admission (I-94) number along with any additional required documents requested by that employer or agency.
 - ▶ Note: For security reasons, we recommend that you close your browser after you have finished retrieving your I-94 number.

If you have questions or need to update your personal information listed above, please visit the USCIS Contact Center webpage at uscis.gov/contactcenter to connect with a live USCIS representative in English or Spanish. If you filed to renew your Employment Authorization Document (EAD) under category A03, A05, A07, A08, A10, A12, A17, A18, C08, C09, C10, C16, C19, C20, C22, C24, C26, or C31, you may be eligible for an automatic extension of your EAD. Full details and an eligibility calculator are at uscis.gov/eadautoextend. You qualify for an automatic extension if: (1) the category on your current EAD matches the "Class Requested" listed on this notice, * and (2) the "Received Date" on this notice is before the "Card Expires" date on your EAD. *If you filed under the A12 or C19 classifications, you qualify for an automatic extension if: (1) this notice and your expired EAD contain either A12 or C19 (they do not need to match); and (2) you filed your renewal Form I-765 during the TPS re-registration period indicated in the applicable Federal Register notice for your country found at uscis.gov/humanitarian/temporary-protected-status. If you are eligible for an automatic extension of your EAD, you can show this notice with your expired EAD to your employer for employment eligibility verification (Form I-9) purposes. The automatic extension is for up to 540 days from the expiration date printed on the front of your EAD. If we deny your renewal application, the automatic extension ends immediately, and you can no longer use this notice for Form I-9 purposes. If your EAD is also your Advance Parole document, the automatic extension does not apply to Advance Parole. This notice, by itself, does not grant any immigration status or benefit, nor is it evidence that this application is still pending. If you are applying to renew your A17, A18, or C26 employment authorization and you are relying upon the automatic extension to demonstrate your employment authorization during the automatic extension period, you must show: (1) this receipt notice; (2) an unexpired I-94, Arrival-Departure Record, showing valid E, L-2, or H-4 status; and (3) your A17, A18, or C26 EAD that matches the category on this receipt notice. Your automatic extension ends on the earliest of: the end date on your I-94; the date we adjudicate this renewal application, or 540 days after the expiration date on your EAD.
